

Innovation for Sustainable
Sheep and Goat
Production in Europe

Web based learning

E learning

Background

Innovation for Sustainable
Sheep and Goat
Production in Europe

iSAGE organized

- Summer school
- 4 Regional training events

To enhance capacity on

- Challenges facing the industry
- Methods developed by the project
- Project outputs to address challenges

But these only reach a small audience so material used to develop web based courses

Content

Innovation for Sustainable
Sheep and Goat
Production in Europe

Targeted at

- research
- industry,
- extension services and NGOs who advise the industry.

Help users to undertake further relevant research in the sheep and goat sector, implement the project outputs and deliver further courses to a wider audience.

Content

- Video recordings of lecturers
- Linked to PowerPoint presentations
- Interactive question and answer

Innovation for Sustainable
Sheep and Goat
Production in Europe

Content

Innovation for Sustainable
Sheep and Goat
Production in Europe

Material covers the 5 main topic areas addressed by the project.

- Environment and Sustainability
- Impact of climate change
- Role of genetics/genomics to overcome challenges
- Participatory research and innovation adoption
- Assessing consumer needs and new product development

Access

- 21 presentations
- Freely accessible through here

Innovation for Sustainable
Sheep and Goat
Production in Europe